

CENTER-ASLING IT!

KAY MOTZENBECKER (Neckwear Department) recently announced her engagement to Walter Murray.

GALE GERBINSKY (Silverware Department) will become Mrs. Irving Rubenstein. Mr. Rubenstein was formerly of our Mens' Furnishings Department.

FRANK KOTLER (Basement Shoes) is the lucky man and Christmas Day was the occasion for the announcement of his engagement to Miss Shirley Wischner of New York City was made at a reception at the Wischner home. Miss Wischner is a graduate of Hunter College. The wedding is planned for the Fall.

SYLVIA PARIS (Basement Millinery) was married to Norman Goldstein of Newark on January 28th at Ann Gordons, Clinton Avenue, Newark.

HARRIET KIRKLAND (Art Needlework) announced her engagement to Frederick Newton of Harrison, N. J.

MILDRED PAUL (Upholstery Office) recently announced her engagement to James Ross of Newark.

Precious Seconds

The Men's Clothing Department has a new wrapper -- the Personality Girl, RUTH WILLIAMSON. All right now, boys, break it up.

Where did CHRIS CARLSEN (Boy's Clothing) and FRANK WALLACE (Alteration Department) go on the first day of their Winter vacation -- and why are they so secretive about it? Chris incidentally, has recently joined the Danish Club of Bloomfield.

Rumor has it that there is method in DANNY COPE'S madness regarding his purported vacation trip to Miami, if going to Florida this time of year may be called madness? Can he possibly be contemplating acquiring a Southern Belle in addition to a southern tan.

(Continued - Next Column)

37

NURSE BRICE (Infants' Wear) gave a lecture January 10 at the Summer Avenue Parent-Teachers Association. We hear she did a grand job -- and even sold some of her display merchandise.

The long lines are already beginning to form at the license bureau on the second floor. Renew your licenses now -- March 31 is the deadline.

Now is your chance to brush up on your golf, or, if you are a novice, learn this national sport right under the capable tutelage of DANNY WILLIAMS well-known Pro of Crestmont Golf Club, who is teaching on the second floor in the Sporting Goods Department. By the way, have you seen our new practice cages and dressing rooms? It's well worth a visit.

HARRY ARONS swears he saw a Florida-tanned robin outside his window one morning -- a winged fugitive from the frozen South.

*****

HOUSEKEEPING DEPARTMENT

It wasn't that our own EDDIE MATUSIAK figured two can live as cheaply as one, it was just that he was, and is, in love. We can vouch for it too. So, last January 13th was the date and St. Casimir's Church, Pulaski Street, was the happy scene of Eddie's marriage to the former Miss Estelle Czornik of Newark. A host of friends and relatives of the couple attended the ceremony.

*****

It is with deep regret that we must report the continued illness of EDWARD GARRIGAN, doorman, Co-worker's Entrance. Also that of LYDIA SHIELDS maid, Third Floor. However we do hear both are recuperating favorably. ELIZABETH PORTER, elevatoress, is about again and will soon be signing in.